SHAKE-UP IN CHICAGO POLICE FORCE

CURTIS MAY SUCCEED LODGE AS G.O.P. LEADER

Kansas Senator May Lead Republicans — Warren Refuses Leadership.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, assistant Republican floor leader and whip, is regarded as the outstanding candidate for the Republican Senate leadership vacated by the death of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts.

Senator Francis E. Warren of Wyoming, the Republican Senator with the longest service record, was conceded the leadership, but he said he would not accept it on account of the condition of his health and the work leadership would entail. Senators James W. Wadsworth of New York and Senator James E. Watson of Indiana are also frequently mentioned in connection with the leadership.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 20.—On complaints from tourist agencies that American visitors to Europe were keeping away from Holland owing to high visa charges, the Dutch foreign office has announced a new schedule of rates. An eight day visa will cost $1, while for a visa valid for one year the charge will be $10.

IMPERIAL PAPERS IN LONDON FALL INTO HANDS OF SOVIET

LONDON, Nov. 20.—After extended negotiations, the Soviet delegation here is in possession of Chesam House, the former Imperial Russian embassy, as well as the Imperial archives housed here.

The Soviet government arranged to take over the lease of the house from the executors of the late Count Benckendorff, the last ambassador of the Czar to England, and as it has been recognized by the British government as the "de jure" government of Russia, its claim to the state papers could not be resisted.

WEST INDIAN OIL FLOWS STEADILY

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, B. W. L., Nov. 20.—The petroleum industry of Trinidad, started 19 years ago, has shown an increase from 368,934 gallons in 1905 to 106,780,531 gallons in 1923. The total production during this period of time, has been more than 688,000,000 gallons. Only twice has the steady increase in production been arrested, in 1915-16 and in 1919.

The exportation of crude and refined oil in 1923 amounted to 65,457 gallons.

Black Sea Ports Are Cold to Wandering Russians

VARNA, Bulgaria, Nov. 20.—Into the port of Varna there sailed the other day a schooner bearing a group of Russians seeking a haven. The Rumanian authorities looked them over and, for political reasons, bade them begone without delay.

Today the wanderers are headed for a Turkish port, but with little hope that they will be any more welcome there than they were here.

It was last March that the survivors of eight Russian families, Old Believers, 35 men, women and children, started for a little village near the Chinese frontier to seek refuge from hunger, epidemic and religious persecution. Painfully they made their way across the country by foot and in trains. At Cherson, on the Black Sea, they secured two seaborne in which to continue their wanderings. One of the boats went down in a storm, with all on board. The surviving vessel came into Varna, after having been driven away from the Rumanian port of Mangalia.

Bulgaria refused the wanderers a haven because of recent difficulties with Soviet immigrants and emigrants.
